

REQUEST GUIDELINES

APPLICATION PROCESSING

The Museum of Contemporary Art Chicago reserves the right to deny an image/media request. Materials are delivered electronically unless otherwise requested. Standard processing may take 2 to 5 weeks. Rush service guarantees receipt of image(s) in 7 to 10 business days for an additional fee of 25%.

COPYRIGHT & PUBLICITY DISCLAIMER

Permission will be granted only to the extent of the MCA's ownership of the rights relating to your particular request. In the case of images where the MCA does not own the rights or the ownership is in question or unknown, the responsibility for ascertaining whether any such rights exist, and for obtaining all necessary permissions for the use of those materials remains with the Applicant.

Certain artworks, objects, or text [hereinafter "Works"] appearing in MCA images/media may also be protected by copyright or other proprietary rights held by third-party individuals or institutions [hereinafter "Rights Owners"]. It is the Applicant's responsibility to determine these requirements and secure all necessary clearances. Any and all royalty payments or other requirements specified by Rights Owners must be adhered to by the Applicant. Furthermore, it is the responsibility of the Applicant to access and clear when necessary the publicity rights of any and all individuals appearing in MCA-created content.

Applicant agrees to indemnify the MCA and hold it harmless against any and all loss, cost, damage, expense, judgment, claim, or liability arising as a result of the Applicant's reproduction of Works. Any unauthorized use by any person or entity will render Applicant solely responsible to the MCA and/or Rights Owners, regardless of whether Applicant has profited or is responsible for such unauthorized use.

LIABILITY DISCLAIMER

Media obtained from the MCA shall not be used to show or imply that the MCA endorses any commercial product or enterprise, or to indicate that the MCA concurs with the opinions expressed in, or confirms the accuracy of any text used in relation to the material. The MCA may refuse permission to reproduce images/media if the reproduction does not meet Museum standards or if their use would be detrimental to the collection or to the reputation of the MCA.

NON-REPRODUCTION CONDITIONS: RESEARCH USES

1. Low-resolution image files (JPEG, 72 dpi, 1600 pixels on the longest side) and read-only videos are provided for research purposes and are NOT for reproduction.
2. In the case of research, fees are generally not applicable but if necessary, will be quoted on an individual basis.
3. In the event a researcher wishes to publish the image(s)/media obtained from the MCA for any purpose, the MCA must be contacted to secure further permissions and reproduction-quality content.

APPLICATION FOR IMAGES & MEDIA

REPRODUCTION CONDITIONS: SCHOLARLY, NON-PROFIT & COMMERCIAL USES

1. Permission is granted for only ONE usage in ONE publication/project/video, ONE edition, and ONE language. Additional uses, including subsequent language and revised editions, will be considered upon written application. Reuse of any material is subject to the approval of the MCA. MCA material cannot be sold or given to another person, or made available to another person or institution.
2. Reproductions must be made from images/media supplied by the MCA.
3. Prepayment is required. Images/media will not be released to the Applicant until any applicable fees are received. Fees for image/media and reproduction services are payable whether or not materials are eventually reproduced by Applicant. Replacement costs will be charged in the event of loss or damage. The MCA does not give credit or refunds for any reproduction services.
4. Reproduction rights for images/media are not granted until the Reproduction Agreement (to follow) has been signed by the Applicant and countersigned by MCA staff.
5. One (1) copy of the publication containing the reproduction must be provided, free of charge, to the MCA, attn: Rights and Images, 220 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago, IL 60611
6. High-resolution digital images, video, and text files are provided for scholarly, non-profit, and commercial purposes and follow the fee schedule posted. Additional preparation fees may apply if new photography, scanning, or video recording is required in order to provide publication-quality media. Fees are subject to change without notice.
7. Reproduction must be printed in full-tone black and white or full color and may not be reproduced on color stock. Nothing may be superimposed on the reproduction (i.e. tone, lettering, another image). The reproduction must not be bled off the page or cropped in any way. If a detail is used, it must be identified as such.
8. Image file(s) may not be reduced by more than 60%. If a reduction of 60% or more is required, another smaller image must be requested. Images may not be enlarged.
9. Failure to insert proper copyright credit line and caption information shall result, at MCA's option, in either a revocation of this license or a 100% surcharge on the invoiced amount.
 - In the case of image reproductions, proper documentation, including ownership and photography credits, must appear: directly under the reproduction, on the facing page, on the reverse, in a list of illustrations, and/or in an appendix. The minimum required documentation includes: artist's name, title, and date created. Ownership and photography credits must read exactly as specified by the MCA in the Reproduction Agreement (to follow).
 - In the case of video reproductions, proper documentation, including video operator and editor credits, must appear.
10. When requested, color proofs/video must be submitted before publication and approved in writing by the MCA.
